Dear Mr Brockwell

I write in response to your recent letter

Firstly to clarify, it was not the FA's decision to allow the move. Wimbledon made an approach to the Football League for a move to Milton Keynes. Under Football League rules, they could refer the decision to an independent commission. This commission was appointed by The FA, but remained independent of The FA and the Football League.

The Commission was tasked simply with responding to the request for a move to Milton Keynes and the request was approved. However, it did not endorse a mandatory move to Milton Keynes.

I have also enclosed our original statement on this issue, I trust this clarifies our position on this.

Yours sincerely,
